

KENTUCKY TRIBUNE.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY, BY
J. N. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON.

OFFICE—Third street, north of Main.

TERMS.
Per annum, in advance, $2 00
Within six months, 2 50
At the end of the year, 3 00
If no paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.ADVERTISING.
For each square of 12 lines or less, first insertion, $1 00
Each additional insertion, 25
For each square of 12 lines or less, second insertion, 1 50
Announcing a candidate for any office, 1 00
Continuing same until election, 1 00
If advertisement to be paid in advance, 1 00
If a liberal discount made to yearly advertisers.ADVERTISEMENTS of a personal character, charged double.
If notices of Religious and Public Meetings, Marriages and Deaths, published free.
If notices of Religious and Public Meetings, Marriages and Deaths, published free.JOB-WORK
Of every description, promptly attended to in the best style, on reasonable terms.

Professional Cards.

F. T. & P. C. FOX,
Attorneys at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.
Will attend to all business entrusted to them in Boyle and the adjoining counties.
Dec 14 '55J. F. BELL,
BELL & COWAN,
Attorneys at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.
Having associated themselves together in the practice of their profession, will give faithful attention to all business entrusted to their care in Boyle and the adjoining counties.
Oct. 14, '55J. L. BOLLING,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
Main-Street, Perryville, Ky.
Will attend to all business entrusted to him in Boyle and the adjoining counties.
Sept. 1, '55BOYLE & ANDERSON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
DANVILLE, KY.
Will continue to practice law in partnership with Boyle and adjoining counties. Any business confided to him, will be promptly attended to.
Office on Main-street, opposite the Court House.
Jan. 2, '49SPEED S. FRY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Will practice in the Courts of Boyle and the adjoining counties. Any business confided to him, will be promptly attended to.
[Feb 27, '52]T. P. YOUNG,
Attorney at Law,
DANVILLE, KY.
Will practice in the various Courts of Boyle and the adjoining counties. He will act as agent for the sale or lease of Real Estate or Personal Property, and attend promptly to the collection of monies either as an Attorney or General Collector. All business entrusted to him shall be faithfully and speedily attended to, and returns punctually forwarded.
Office on Main-street, opposite Court-house.
April 13, '55GEO. P. NEWLIN,
SURGICAL AND MECHANICAL DENTIST,
DANVILLE, KENTY.
OFFICE—Up stairs, over Mr. J. H. Caldwell's Store. Entrance on Main street.
Nov 18, '53DR. F. COWAN
TENDERS his Professional services to the citizens of Danville and vicinity. Office on Main-street, next door to Mr. W. S. Hickman's Store, in the room formerly occupied by the Post Office.
Sept 29, '54DR. JAMES HUNTER
HAS determined to remain in Danville, and will devote his attention entirely to the practice of the various branches of his profession.
OFFICE—Up stairs over Mr. Budd's Silverware Shop, in the brick building nearly opposite the Branch Bank.
March 2, '55Business Notices.
C. F. MEYER,
DEALER IN PIANOS,
Music and Musical Instruments,
Corner of Main and Mulberry sts. (op stairs),
LEXINGTON, KY.
ENTRANCE—The iron steps on Mulberry street, opposite the Phoenix Hotel.
Pianos tuned and repaired usual.
Sept 15, '54J. C. HEWLEY,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Confectioneries and Candles,
Fine Groceries,
ORANGE AND DOMESTIC FRUITS,
Perfumery and Fancy Articles.
Agents and Tobacco; Wines and Cordons; Oysters, &c. &c.,
No. 23, Main street,
Danville, Ky.
March 14, '53WATKINS & OWSLEY,
Commission Merchants, Provision and Tobacco Brokers,
NO. 256, MAIN STREET,
LOUISVILLE, KY.
No. 1 Chewing Tobacco.
6 DIFFERENT brands of superior Virginia
Chewing Tobacco, for sale by
L. DIMMITT.
April 13, '55A Pure Article of Older Vinegar
FOR sale by
WM. M. STOUT,
FEB 16

Selected Poetry.

BENNY.

I had told him, Christmas morning,
As he sat upon my knee,
Holding fast his little stockings,
Stuffed as full as full could be,
And attentive listening to me,
With a face demure and mild,
That old Santa Claus, who filled them,
Did not love a naughty child.

"But we'll be good, won't we mother?"
And from off my lap he slid,
Digging deep among the goodies
In his crimson stockings hid;
While I turned me to my table,
Where a tempting goblet stood,
Brimming high with dainty egg-nog,
Sent me by a neighbor good.

But the kitten, there before me,
With his white paw, nothing loth,
Sat by way of entertainment,
Slapping off the shining froth;
And in not the gentlest humor,
At the loss of such a treat,
I confess, I rather rudely
Thrust him into the street.

Then, how Benny's blue eyes kindled!
Gathering up the precious store
He had busily been pouring
In his tiny pinafore,
With a generous look that shamed me,
Sprang he from the carpet bright,
Showing by his main indignance,
All a baby's sense of right.

"Come back, Harney!" called he, loudly,
As he held his apron white—
"You shall have my candy rabbit!"
But the door was fastened tight;
So he stood, abashed and silent,
In the centre of the floor,
With dejected look alternate
Bent on me and on the door.

Then, as by some sudden impulse,
Quickly ran he to the fire,
And while eagerly his bright eyes
Watched the flames go higher and higher,
In a brave, clear key he shouted,
Like some lordly little elf,
"Santa Klaus, come down de chimney,
Make my mother 'have herself'!"

"I will be a good girl, Benny,"
Said I, feeling the reproof,
And straightaway recalled poor Harney,
Mewing on the gallery roof.
Soon the anger was forgotten,
Laughter chased away the frown,
And they gambolled 'neath the live oaks
Till the dusky night came down.

In my dim, fire-lighted chamber,
Harney purred beneath my chair,
And my play woy boy beside me
Knelt to say his evening prayer:
"God bless father, God bless mother,
God bless sister,"—then a pause,
And the sweet young lips devoutly
Murmured, "God bless Santa Klaus!"

He is sleeping,—brown and silken
Lie the lashes, long and meek,
Like caressing, clinging shadows
On his plump and peachy cheek;
And I bend above him, weeping
Thankful tears—Oh, Undeified!
For a woman's crown of glory,
For the blessing of a child.

An Amusing Sketch.

ETHAN SPIKE'S FIRST AND LAST VISIT TO PORTLAND.

"Portland is the darndest place I ever seed. I was there in '33, to see a little about my going to the Legislature, and such a rum time as I had, you never heard tell of. Did I ever tell you about the ice cream scrape I had?"

We answered in the negative, and he resumed—
"Wall, I'd bin down there, two or three days-pokin' about in every hole, an' tho' I'd seed everything there was to be seed; but one day, toward sundown, I was goin' by a shop in Middle street, that looked wonderfully slick—there was all manner of candy an' peppermints, an' jessamin, an' what nots at the windows. An' then war's in with gold letters on to them, hangin' round the door, tellin' us how they sold Soda Bread and Ice Cream that day. I says to myself, I have here a good deal about this ice cream, an' now I'll be darn'd if I won't see what they're made on. So I puts my hands in my pockets an' walk'd in kinder careless, an' says to a chap standin' behind the counter—

"Do you keep any ice creams here?"
"Ye sir," says he, "how much'll you have?"
"I considered a minit on't, an' says I—a pint or so."

The young feller's face swelled out, an' he liked to have laughed right out, but after a while he ax'd—
"Did you say a pint, sir?"
"Sartin," says I, "but p'raps you don't mind taking a quart."

"Wal, don't you think, the feller snorted right out. Tell yer what, it made me feel sort o' pisen, an' I gave him a look that made him look sober about a minit, an' when I clench'd my fist, an' look'd so 'at him, (here Mr. Spike favor'd us with the most diabolical expression,) he heaved in his horns about the quickest, an' handed me a pint of the stuff as perlit as could be. Wal, I tasted a mouthful of it, and found it as cool as the North side o' Bethel Hill in January. I'd half a mind to spit it out, but just then I seed the confectioner clap grinnin' behind the door, which rizz my spunk. Gall smash it all, thinks I, I'll not let that white-livered monkey think I'm afeard—I'll eat the darn'd stuff if it freezes my innards. I tell yer what, I'd rather skin'd a bar, or whip'd a wild cat, but I went it. I eat the whole of it in about a minit.

"Wal, in about a quarter of an hour, I begin to feel kinder grippy about here," continued E. then, pointing to the lower part of his stomach, "an' kept on feelin' no better very fast, till at last it seem'd as though I'd got a steam ingen sawin' shingles in me. I set down on a chair an' bent myself up like a nut cracker, thinkin' I'd grin an' bear it; but I could 'nt set still—I twisted and squirmed about like an angle worm on a hook, till at last the chap as gin me the cream, who had lookin' on snickerin, says to me—

"Mister," says he, "what ails yer?"
"Ails me!" says I, "that ere darn'd stuff of yer'n is freezin' up my daylight," says I.
"You eat too much," says he.
"I tell yer I did 'nt," scream'd I. "I know what's a'out, an' what's too much, without sayin' you, an' if you don't leave off snickerin' I'll spile your face."

"He cottoned right down, and sed he did 'nt mean any hurt, an' ax'd me if I had 'nt better take some gin. I told him I would. So I took a putty good horn an' left the shop."

"Arter I got out, I felt better for a minit or so, but I had 'nt gone far afore the gripes took me agin, an' I went into another shop an' took some more gin; then I set down on the State House steps, and there I set and sed, but I did 'nt feel darn'd a mite better. I begun to think I was goin' to kick the bucket, and then I tho' of father an' mother an' old Spanker—that's father's old horse, an' when I thought that I should never see them agin, I fairly blubbered. But then I happened to look up an' see a dozen boys grinnin' an' laffin at me, I tell you what, it rizz my dander—that had got down below axo—rite up agin. I sprang at 'em like a wild cat, hollerin' out that I would shake their tarna! gizzards out, and the way the little devils scamper'd was a caution to nobody. But arter the excitement of the race was over, I felt worse agin, an' I could 'nt help groanin' an' screechin as I went along."

At last I tho' I'd go to the theatre, but afore I get there the gripes got so strong that I had to go behind a meetin' house and lay down and holler. Arter a while I got up an' went into a shop an' eat half a dollar's worth of billet sters with four pickled cumberboms, and wound up with a glass of brandy. Then I went into the theatre and seed the plays, but I felt so tarna! that I could not see any fun in 'em, for I don't think the isters and the cumberboms dun me a ny good. I set down, laid down, and stood up, but still it went on grippy, grippy. I groaned all the time, an' once in a while I was obliged to screech, kinder easy. Everybody stared at me, an' somebody holler'd—"turn him out," once or twice. But at last, just as the nigger Ortel-lo was going to put the piller on his wife's finger, I sed to myself, I'll be bustin' an' yell'd out—"oh I dear! oh I scissors!" so loud that the old theatre rung agin. Such a row you never seed; the nigger dropped the piller, Dautenomy—or what you call her—there his wife jumped off the bed and ran, while everybody in the theatre was all up in a muss some roarin, laffin, some swarin. The upshot of it was, the perlice carried me out of the theatre and told me to make myself scarce."

Wal, as I didn't feel any better I went into a shop close by, an' called for two glasses of brandy, arter swallerin' it, I went hum to the tavern. I set down by the window and tried to think I felt better, but 'twas no go; that blessed old engine was still wallowin' away inside; so I went out and eat at a quarter's worth of isters an' a piece of mince pie. Then I went back an' told the tavern keeper I felt kinder sick, and that I'd take some Caster ile, a mouthful of cold meat and a strong glass of whiskey punch, an' then go to bed. He got the fixens, which I took an' went to bed.

But, tell yer what, I had rather a poor night. Sometimes I was awake groanin, an' when I was asleep I'd better bin awake, for I had sich powerful dreams. Sometimes I thought I was skinnin' a bar, an' then by some hocuspocus 'twould all change 'other side to, an' the fatal critter would be a skinnin' me."

Then agin, I'd dream that I was rollin' logs the way boys, an' 'jst as I'd be a sheutin' out—"now then—here she comes!"—everything would get reversed agin—I was a log, an' the boys were pryin' me up with their handspikes—Then I'd wake up an' screech an' roar—then off to sleep agin—to dream that Spanker had ran away with me, or that father was whoppin me, or some other play thing till mornin."

When I got up I had 'nt any appetite for breakfast, an' the tavern keeper told me that if I was goin' to carry on screamin and groanin as I had the night before, my room was better than my company."

"I hain't," said Mr. Spike in conclusion, "I hain't bin to Portland since, but if I live to be as old as Methusalem, I shall never get that affixed Ice Cream."

Choice Miscellany.
THE SWEATER REQUIRED.—On a certain occasion General Washington invited a number of his fellow officers to dine with him. While at the table one of them uttered an oath. The General dropped his knife and fork in a moment and in his deep undertone and characteristic dignity and deliberation, said, "I thought that we all supposed ourselves gentlemen." He then resumed his knife and fork, and went on as before. The remark struck like an electric shock, and, as was intended, did execution, as his remarks in such cases were very apt to do. No person swore at the table after that. And after dinner the officer referred to, remarked to his companion, "that if the General had struck him over the head with his sword, he could have borne it; but the home thrust which he gave him was too much." It was too much for a gentleman. And it is hoped that it will be too much for any one who pretends to be a gentleman."

SUICIDE OF A DOG.—The Boston Chronicle vouches for the authenticity of the following story:
During the past week a gentleman living in the south part of the city, near the track of one of our railroads, intending to give a dinner party to some friends, purchased for his table a fine piece of venison, which to his taste was as inviting a feast as could be conceived of. The delicate joint duly arrived home, and was hung up, until it might be wanted, in the sick-room. This gentleman has been for a year or two the owner of a fine dog, much attached to his master, who, in turn, esteemed the faithful creature highly. Now it unfortunately happened that this piece of meat was hung low enough to be within reach of "Bruno," who, being unable to resist the temptation, seized upon it and devoured the major part. He was detected by his master in aggravate derelict, and present rage outweighing past friendship, the poor fellow was severely beaten and kicked out of doors. He returned, however, soon after, but with a dejected and lang-log look, which he maintained for a day or two, when he disappeared altogether. Search being made, his body, severed from the head and chest, was found on the railroad track, a short distance from the house, the poor creature having ended a life which was no longer bearable, by a voluntary death. His master, who had repented his harshness, had for some time endeavored to face the impression by acts of kindness, but all to no purpose. "Bruno" had been disgraced, and death alone could wipe out the stain."

REWARDS OF MECHANICAL GENIUS.—It is stated in the Scientific American that the right to a portion of Ward's patent shingle machine was recently sold in Albany for $35,000. A portion of Robertson's sewing machine has also been sold for $30,000. This is an invention which can be carried in the pocket, and will enable a seamstress to do in one day the ordinary labor of a week. Machines of this kind are about to be constructed in New Haven, Conn., by the Messrs. Jofome, at $10 a piece; the manufacturers are now constructing the machinery, and expect to sell orders in January. Howe's patent sewing machine yields, it is said, $50,000 for licenses to use it, and Singer's machine puts $75,000 into the pockets of its owners. Rights to use the corn-planter have been sold to the amount of $30,000. One of the patent pumps sold for $30,000. A portion of the right to an apple-paring machine, $25. One of the latest car-brake, $200,000. Such rewards are these for American inventions are certainly stimulating to mechanical genius, and the only wonder is that there are not ten mechanical inventions where one now exists, where there is so wide a field for its exercise in almost every department of business."

A BEAUTIFUL SMILE.—A few days since a lovely little child of four summers was buried in this town. On leaving the house of its parents, the clergyman, Rev. Mr. Jay, plucked up by the roots a beautiful little "forget-me-not," and took it with him to the grave.

After the little embryo of humanity had been deposited in the grave, the clergyman, holding up the plant in his hand, said:
"I hold in my hand a beautiful flower which I plucked from the garden we have just left. By taking it from its parent home, it has withered, but I here plant it in the head of this grave and it will soon revive and flourish."

"So with the little flower we have just planted in the grave. It has been plucked from its native garden, and has withered, but it is transplanted into the garden of immortality, where it will revive and flourish in immortality, glory and beauty."

THE NOVELTIES OF UTAH.—A private letter from Provo City, Utah county, U. T., (fifty miles from Great Salt Lake,) contains the following items of interest:
"We live in sight of snow the year round. We can, as it were, pick flowers with one hand, and gather snow with the other. It is warm in the valleys, healthy, pleasant and fruitful, with seldom any rain, but we have plenty of mountain streams to irrigate our fields and gardens, so that the latter do not suffer for want of moisture. We have no fever and ague; there is always a mountain breeze which affords us a very pure atmosphere. Groceries are very high; coffee and sugar sell at fifty cents per pound; calico from twenty to thirty cents per yard, and other things are in proportion. We have been very busily engaged in making sugar, which is manufactured from a sort of honey dew or sugar coating, which falls on the leaves of the cottonwood trees, and resembles the frosting on cake. There have been several thousand pounds of sugar made from this substance within a few days, and it sells readily at forty cents per pound."

A SHIPWRECKED INFANT'S ESCAPE.—During the raging of the storm at Hollyon, on Saturday week, in one of the standard vessels was a poor woman and her infant. Beholding but little, if any chance of escape for herself, she yet clung to the possibility of saving the life of her child. Maternal affection is quick as thought. She therefore forms the desperate resolution of committing her child to the "mercy of the waves." Carefully wrapped up in flannel, the child is placed into a hamper and lowered into the sea. A tumultuous wave received it for a moment, and in another, the hamper was hurled on the beach. The child is saved, and delivered to his mother, for in a brief time after, she also by the blessing of the Almighty is saved.

THE FOLLOWING ANECDOTE is told of a very clever fellow, who has recently joined the Sons of Temperance:
After becoming a "Son," he went to Mobile on business, and was taken ill there. The physician was called, and on examining him, pronounced him in a very dangerous condition, and prescribed brandy. The sick man told him he could not take it. The doctor insisted that it was a proper remedy, but the patient told him he would not take it. The doctor said he must take it or he would surely have spasms.

"Well," said the Son of Temperance, "I will try a couple of spasms first."

ADVERTISING.—"Ah Sam, so you've been in trouble, eh?"
"Well, Jim, yes."
"Well, well, cheer up, man; adversity rises up and shows up our better qualities."
"Ah but adversity did 'nt rise up; it was a county judge, and he showed up my worst qualities."

AN AGENT SOLICITING SUBSCRIBERS for a book, showed the prospectus to a man who, after reading "one dollar in boards, and one dollar and twenty-five cents in sheep," declined subscribing, for, as he considered, a very good reason, viz: he had not heard of sheep or sheep enough on hand when called upon for payment.

THE TATTER.—There is no being on the habitable globe more degenerated and more contemptible than the tatter. Vicious principles, want of honesty, servile meanness, despicable insiduousness, form its character. Has he will in attempting to display it he makes himself a fool. Has he friends? By unsuitably disclosing their secrets, he will make them his most bitter enemies. Does he covet favor from any one? He attempts to gain it by slandering others. His approach is feared, his person hated, his company unsought, and his sentiment despised, as emanating from a heart fruitful with guile, teeming with iniquity, loaded with envy, hatred and revenge.

THESE ARE ASTONISHING FEATS, said an ardent admirer of the sports of the ring to Mrs. Partington, at the circus the other evening—"astounding feats." "Yes," said the old lady, "as they are astonishing feat, and considerable legs too, to judge at this distance." She looked at Ike, who sat by the curb watching the clown, with his eyes full of wonder and his hands full of pea nuts, and she reached over to his honor the mayor, and asked him if he thought the revoluting by the whole troupe would have a dilatory tenderness on the boy."

A WIFE'S RIGHTS.—"Wife," said a married man, looking for a boot jack, after she was in bed, "I have a place for all things, and you ought to know it by this time."
"Yes," replied she, "I ought to know where you keep your late hours, but I don't."

AN OLD CYNIC, at a concert the other night, read in the programme the title of a song, viz: "Oh give me a cat in the valley I love." Reading it over attentively, the old fellow finally growled, "Well, if I had my choice, I should ask for a bedstead."

G. W. LEATHERMAN,
DAGUERRETYPE,
At the Old Established Rooms,
In the Post Office Building.
HAS just returned from Cincinnati with the finest stock of Daguerreotype Material ever opened in Danville, embracing all the latest styles. He will be pleased to have the ladies and gentlemen call and examine Specimens, whether they wish Pictures or not.
Nov. 15, '55

"Call at the Captain's Office, AND SETTLE."
ALL persons indebted to me by note or account, are respectfully requested to settle up as soon as possible. I wish to close up the whole of my Livery Stable business immediately, and hope this notice will be promptly attended to.
GEO. G. CARPENTER.
Nov 9

OWEN'S HOTEL,
Corner 1th and Jefferson Streets,
LOUISVILLE.
W. R. OWEN, PROPRIETOR.
Dec 7, '55

FOR SALE:
I WILL sell, upon liberal terms, MY RESIDENCE, adjoining the town of Danville.
JULY 20

LAND WARRANTS WANTED.
I wish to purchase
20 100 Acre Land Warrants;
30 100 " " do;
50 50 " " do;
100 40 " " do;
For which I will give the highest cash prices. Individuals having Land Warrants to dispose of will do well to give me a call before selling them to any other man, as I am determined not to be over-bid.
Danville, Nov 2, '55

FINE JEWELRY,
WATCHES, &c.
THOS. R. J. AYRES
HAS just received an addition to his stock, consisting of Breast Pins, Necklaces, Jet, Gold and Coral, Gold Bracelets, Gold Silver and Steel Spectacles, Watch Riggers, &c. &c. He is in receipt of something new almost every week, and invites the attention of his friends and the public.
Sept 28, '55

CASH FOR WHEAT!
THIR underigned will pay the highest price in Cash for Wheat, delivered in Danville, to J. C. McKAY or J. B. McNEILL, either of whom will receive and pay for it. My Depot is at the old Tavern stand, diagonally opposite the Battlement House.
T. T. COGAR.
Oct 26, '55

FLOWER POTS,
ASSORTED sizes, for sale by
WM. M. STOUT.
FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES.
FINE Brandy and Wines for Medical purposes. Also, superior Missouri Chewing Tobacco. For sale at the Perryville Drug Store.
JAS. M. GRAY, JR.
Perryville, Oct 19, '55

SALT.
I HAVE on hand a quantity of No. 1 Kansas Salt, at the Danville Steam Mill, which I will sell for Cash, or exchange for Wheat or Rye.
D. CROZIER, Ag't.
Oct 26, '55

BEAUTIFUL BOOKS.
A GIFT BOOKS and Juvenile Books, just received for the coming Holidays, by Nov 16 WM. M. STOUT.

TRUNKS & CARPET BAGS.
JUST received, at the Danville and Boyle County Clothing Store, a large assortment of Leather Trunks and Carpet Sacks, of all qualities, which I will sell at extremely low rates for Cash.
Oct 5, '55 H. JACOBS.

Just Received,
AT WELSH & NICHOLS', a large lot of extra SAUSAGE CUTTERS. Also, a few 1/2 lbs Mackerel.
Dec 7, 1855

THE PITTSFIELD EAGLE says great regard for the comfort of his fellow passengers, but not much for his dog, was manifested by a French man who took the cars at Pittsfield, last week, for N. Y. The animal was a valuable one and he did not like to leave him, nor did he like to take him into the cars, to the discomfort of the passengers, so procuring a stout cord, he attached one end to the dog's collar, and the other end to the back of a rear car. The train went into Bridgeport with a brass collar, and a dog's car attached. Considerable dog was strewn along the track.

THESE ARE ASTONISHING FEATS, said an ardent admirer of the sports of the ring to Mrs. Partington, at the circus the other evening—"astounding feats." "Yes," said the old lady, "as they are astonishing feat, and considerable legs too, to judge at this distance." She looked at Ike, who sat by the curb watching the clown, with his eyes full of wonder and his hands full of pea nuts, and she reached over to his honor the mayor, and asked him if he thought the revoluting by the whole troupe would have a dilatory tenderness on the boy."

A WIFE'S RIGHTS.—"Wife," said a married man, looking for a boot jack, after she was in bed, "I have a place for all things, and you ought to know it by this time."
"Yes," replied she, "I ought to know where you keep your late hours, but I don't."

AN OLD CYNIC, at a concert the other night, read in the programme the title of a song, viz: "Oh give me a cat in the valley I love." Reading it over attentively, the old fellow finally growled, "Well, if I had my choice, I should ask for a bedstead."

G. W. LEATHERMAN,
DAGUERRETYPE,
At the Old Established Rooms,
In the Post Office Building.
HAS just returned from Cincinnati with the finest stock of Daguerreotype Material ever opened in Danville, embracing all the latest styles. He will be pleased to have the ladies and gentlemen call and examine Specimens, whether they wish Pictures or not.
Nov. 15, '55

"Call at the Captain's Office, AND SETTLE."
ALL persons indebted to me by note or account, are respectfully requested to settle up as soon as possible. I wish to close up the whole of my Livery Stable business immediately, and hope this notice will be promptly attended to.
GEO. G. CARPENTER.
Nov 9

OWEN'S HOTEL,
Corner 1th and Jefferson Streets,
LOUISVILLE.
W. R. OWEN, PROPRIETOR.
Dec 7, '55

FOR SALE:
I WILL sell, upon liberal terms, MY RESIDENCE, adjoining the town of Danville.
JULY 20

LAND WARRANTS WANTED.
I wish to purchase
20 100 Acre Land Warrants;
30 100 " " do;
50 50 " " do;
100 40 " " do;
For which I will give the highest cash prices. Individuals having Land Warrants to dispose of will do well to give me a call before selling them to any other man, as I am determined not to be over-bid.
Danville, Nov 2, '55

FINE JEWELRY,
WATCHES, &c.
THOS. R. J. AYRES
HAS just received an addition to his stock, consisting of Breast Pins, Necklaces, Jet, Gold and Coral, Gold Bracelets, Gold Silver and Steel Spectacles, Watch Riggers, &c. &c. He is in receipt of something new almost every week, and invites the attention of his friends and the public.
Sept 28, '55

CASH FOR WHEAT!
THIR underigned will pay the highest price in Cash for Wheat, delivered in Danville, to J. C. McKAY or J. B. McNEILL, either of whom will receive and pay for it. My Depot is at the old Tavern stand, diagonally opposite the Battlement House.
T. T. COGAR.
Oct 26, '55

FLOWER POTS,
ASSORTED sizes, for sale by
WM. M. STOUT.
FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES.
FINE Brandy and Wines for Medical purposes. Also, superior Missouri Chewing Tobacco. For sale at the Perryville Drug Store.
JAS. M. GRAY, JR.
Perryville, Oct 19, '55

SALT.
I HAVE on hand a quantity of No. 1 Kansas Salt, at the Danville Steam Mill, which I will sell for Cash, or exchange for Wheat or Rye.
D. CROZIER, Ag't.
Oct 26, '55

BEAUTIFUL BOOKS.
A GIFT BOOKS and Juvenile Books, just received for the coming Holidays, by Nov 16 WM. M. STOUT.

TRUNKS & CARPET BAGS.
JUST received, at the Danville and Boyle County Clothing Store, a large assortment of Leather Trunks and Carpet Sacks, of all qualities, which I will sell at extremely low rates for Cash.
Oct 5, '55 H. JACOBS.

Just Received,
AT WELSH & NICHOLS', a large lot of extra SAUSAGE CUTTERS. Also, a few 1/2 lbs Mackerel.
Dec 7, 1855

LAND AGENCY.

O. C. LEE, G. L. NICKOLLS,
Dacora, Iowa, Davenport, Iowa.LEE & NICKOLLS,
DACORAH, IOWA,
Real Estate Agents and Brokers.

J. T. BOYLE.

HAVING made satisfactory arrangements with the above gentlemen, is prepared to select, locate and sell lands for any parties desiring to invest in the West and North West on favorable terms.

I will locate government lands, with Land Warrants or money, in Iowa, Minnesota and Illinois. I will make locations and investments for such compensation as may be agreed, or I will receive part of the profits for my services, incurring all expenses myself. I will take the title to the parties furnishing the money or warrants, and certificates of entry shall be forwarded to the parties on the day they are issued by the Register.

All selections of lands for entry and location made by the above gentlemen, in person, or by most reliable surveys, employed to go upon the lands and make the surveys and examinations.

J. T. BOYLE, Danville, Ky.

N. B.—I wish to purchase a few Land Warrants, for which I will pay the market price.

J. T. B.

Danville, Nov 9, '55

The Kentucky Tribune.

DANVILLE, KY.

Published weekly, except on Sundays, at $1.00 per annum in advance.

Subscription price, $1.00 per annum in advance.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Entered as second-class matter, June 15, 1879, under post office No. 100, at Danville, Ky., under special authority of post office at Washington, D.C., June 15, 1879.

Postage paid at Danville, Ky., June 15, 1879.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 10, 1918.

Copyright, 1918, by The Kentucky Tribune.

Printed at the Danville Press, Danville, Ky.

Published by The Kentucky Tribune, Danville, Ky.

Same—A bill to amend an act, entitled, an act to incorporate the Perryville and Mitchellburg Turnpike Road Company, passed.

Loose was given to bring in the following bills, which were appropriately referred.

Mr. BURTON—A bill to amend the charter of the Perryville Seminary.

Mr. BURTON—A bill to incorporate the Merchants Deposit Bank, of Danville.

HOUSE.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9, 1886.

REPORT FROM STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. HARRIS—County Court—A bill to legalize the subscriptions of the Garrison County Court to the Danville, Dix River and Lancaster Turnpike Road Company, passed.

Same—A bill to amend the 6th section of an act incorporating the Danville, Dix River and Lancaster Turnpike Road Company, passed.

HOUSE.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9, 1886.

A bill was reported to declare seduction a crime, and fixing a punishment for it.

[Declares seduction a felony, and upon proof, fixing the punishment at twenty years confinement in the penitentiary.]

Mr. NUTTALL offered a substitute for said bill.

[The substitute provides: that any Roman Catholic Priest, Preacher, Elder, Deacon, or other officer of a church, seducing a member of the church, shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than 10 nor more than 20 years. That any person shall seduce his sister, half-sister, his own daughter, or step-daughter, or his ward or niece, he shall suffer death. That any other person, other than those mentioned above, who shall seduce any woman, shall be deemed guilty of a highly penal offense, and shall be confined in the discretion of a jury, from 15 years of age, the person seducing shall suffer death, provided he shall have reached the age of twenty-one years; proof being necessary in all cases.]

The bill and amendment were referred to the committee on Revised Statutes.

IN SENATE.

THURSDAY, Jan. 10.

REPORTS FROM SELECT COMMITTEES.

Mr. IRVINE reported a bill to amend the law regulating the sale of spirituous liquors—ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on revised statutes.

Mr. SMITH reported a bill to establish a Kentucky Institution for the education of the idiotic and imbecile children; to be printed and made the special order of the day for Tuesday week.

Leave was given to bring the following bills, which were appropriately referred, viz:

Mr. BLAIN—To bring in a bill to amend the charter of the Knob Lick and Stanfield Turnpike Road Company; internal improvement.

Same—To bring in a bill incorporating Hawkins' branch turnpike road company; internal improvement.

Mr. BURTON—A bill to amend the charter of the Danville, Dix River and Lancaster Turnpike Road Company; internal improvement.

HOUSE.

THURSDAY, Jan. 10.

REPORTED BILLS.

A bill to prevent negro stealing, and the committee asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. NUTTALL begged leave to read the bill and move to instruct the committee to report the bill, and said he would call for the year and may.

Mr. McLEARY spoke against the bill and said that if you annex the word "property" to the crime of tampering with negroes which the bill provides, in nine cases out of ten a jury from sentiments of humanity would acquit.

The motion to instruct the committee was lost, and the committee was discharged from the further consideration of the bill.

Mr. FOGLE—A bill for the benefit of R. B. Pepper, a citizen of Woodford county, praying to be relieved of the penalty of the law incurred for having challenged Perdue of Marion county to fight a duel.

The bill after some debate on the part of several members, was finally referred to the judiciary.

IN SENATE.

FRIDAY, Jan. 12.

Leave was given to bring in the following bills, which were appropriately referred, viz:

Mr. HOGAN—A bill for the better protection of slave property.

Mr. HARRIS—A bill for the benefit of and to increase the Common School fund by giving all the fines and forfeitures hereafter recovered in the prosecutions for gambling of every kind, except that part now allowed by law to the Commonwealth attorneys.

Mr. HAGGIN—A bill to amend the existing law in relation to interest.

Several bills which passed in the House yesterday were taken up, and referred to appropriate committees.

A number of local bills were passed.

HOUSE.

SATURDAY, Jan. 12.

A bill establishing the county of Rowan; passed.

[Established out of parts of Fleming and Morgan counties, and naming the county seat Morehead.]

A bill to regulate the standard weight of certain products; passed.

[Reduces the standard weight of potatoes from 63 to 55 pounds to the bushel.]

Leave was given to bring in the following bills, which were appropriately referred, viz:

Mr. DUNN—A bill for the benefit of the Lancaster and Crab Orchard turnpike road company.

Same—A bill to incorporate the town of Bryansville in Garrard county.

Mr. WHITELEY—A bill to incorporate the Powell Mining and Manufacturing Company.

Same—A bill authorizing the advertisement of sales of property under decrees.

Same—A bill to incorporate the State Agricultural Association.

IN SENATE.

MONDAY, Jan. 14, 1886.

Mr. KOHLHASS—(House Bill)—Internal Improvement—A bill to amend the charter of the Greensburg and Taylor county Turnpike Road Company; passed.

Same—(House Bill)—A bill to incorporate the Taylor county and Melndrow's Hill Turnpike Road Company; passed.

Arrival of the Northern Light.

Later from California, Nicaragua, Oregon, &c.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The steamship Northern Light arrived at a late hour last night from San Juan via Key West with California dates to December 29th.

She brings $630,000 in specie and upwards of 300 passengers. The specie was consigned to Metropolitan Bank $250,000, Drexel & Co. $200,000.

The matters at Nicaragua are said to be improving.

San Salvador and Honduras have officially recognized the Government of Rivas and a minister from Honduras is reported on his way to Grenada.

Col. Walker was receiving continual accessions to his forces.

Colonel Kinney is still at San Juan del Norte. A large number of his men have recently joined Walker.

An expedition under Rivas, son of the President had fortified themselves near Castillo Rapids, and threatened to seize the Transit Company's steamer and the property of the passengers. But Com. Spaulding, at the request of the Company, sent forward another party, when Rivas and his party fled.

Col. Hornby was to proceed with an armed force for the further protection of the place. The U. S. steamer Massachusetts was at San Juan del Sud, and the flag ship Independence was daily expected.

The central Kinney paper alludes to a report that Honduras and San Salvador had made more overtures to the Nicaraguan Minister of State.

On the arrival of the Potomac at San Juan, dispatches were immediately transmitted to the American minister at Grenada.

The mines of California were yielding more abundantly than ever. Several new ones had been opened.

The U. S. cutter Joseph Lane arrived with Oregon dates to the 14th of December. The Indian war is raging with increased fury.

The Oregon mounted volunteers, under Lieut. Kelly, attacked the Indians at Fort Wallawalla, Dec. 18th, and fought them 48 hours, losing 8 killed and 11 wounded. Among the killed were Captain Bennett and Lieut. Barrows. The Indians lost their Chief and 50 men. The volunteers were short ammunition and sent to Henrietta for supplies.

Gen. Wool was at Fort Vancouver in bad health, and was arranging the preliminaries of a campaign.

Two steamers had departed from San Francisco for Oregon with ordnance and stores—supplies for Gen. Wool.

The dates from Washington Territory are to the 10th of December.

A party under Lieut. Slaughter has been surprised at the forks of White and Green rivers by a large party of Indians. Lieut. Slaughter and three others were killed.

On the 20th, 120 recruits for Walker's army left San Francisco in the Cortes.

The Times and the Transcript, the leading administration papers, have been discontinued.

Dates from the Sandwich Islands are to the 10th of December. There is nothing of importance.

Australia dates to the 21st of Oct. Breadstuffs were firm and advancing.

The trade in San Francisco is dull; money tight and domestic production is advancing. Imports have declined, and the price of flour is $16. Choice butter 25c.

THE OLD JACKSON GUARD.—The special friends and confidants of Gen. Jackson are, one by one, thrust out of the Democratic party of the present day.

The dynasty of John C. Calhoun survives its founder, and grows more powerful under the management of his successors than it ever was under his hand.

The Calhoun dynasty inherits the private griefs of Mr. Calhoun, and resolutely avenges them all. Where is Martin Van Buren, the favorite who supplanted Mr. Calhoun in Gen. Jackson's confidence, and obtained the succession? Expelled long since from the fold of Democracy. Where is Thomas H. Benton, the mighty Senatorial Ajax, that propelled the Jackson administration triumphantly over the ruins of Calhoun secession and rebellion? Utterly proscribed and cast out from the ranks of Democracy.

Where is the remnant household of Gen. Jackson—Andrew J. Donelson—his adopted son and cherished family favorite? Numbered no longer with the "faithful," but first refused honorable service in the party; and then driven over to the ranks of the Americans.

And, lastly, where is Francis P. Blair, Sr., the editor of the Washington Globe, the organ of Gen. Jackson, and the great "blunderer" of his administration? He, too, after being for years ostracized, with the rest of Gen. Jackson's devoted friends, turns up at last an exile from the Democratic party, and a volunteer recruit to a modern faction called the "Republican" party! Verily Mr. Calhoun is avenged. His policy, even down to his hates, rules the National Democracy.

If he were living now, he might now be president, king or despot of the party whose Chief once threatened to hang him.—St. Louis Intelligence

Mr. FULLER.—The SPEAKERSHIP.—In reference to Mr. FULLER, one of the candidates for Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives, the Sussex (Va.) Herald (Dem.) says:

"We have one word to say about him. If our own candidate cannot be elected, (Mr. Richardson,) no man of the opposition would better fill the chair than Fuller. We know him well. He was our room-mate at Princeton, and we know that he has ever been what is now a straight-whig—an honorable, liberal opponent, endowed with talent and lighted courtesy—and such a man we would ever prefer to a truckling time-server, or a sneaking tactician. We therefore trust, that if one of that opposition is to be selected, it may be Henry M. Fuller, of Pennsylvania."

Desirable Town Property

IN PERRYVILLE, FOR SALE.

WISH to sell, or exchange for a Farm in Boyle or one of the adjoining counties.

The Valuable Property Now occupied by me in the town of Perryville, Boyle county, Ky., embracing a Lot of One Acre, on which are situated

Two Dwelling Houses!

One a Large Brick Building, nearly new, containing 7 rooms, well finished rooms, good kitchen, Smoke-house, Poultry-house, and all other necessary Out-Buildings; together with an excellent Garden. The Yard is well set with Shrubs, Fruit Trees and Vines, including the best varieties of the Apple, Peach, Cherry, Plum, Grape, &c. The other house is port, Brick, the remainder Frame, and known as the "Cave House," from the fact that it is built over a cave, in which there is a large never-failing Spring of the best and purest water. The cave is walled up, and makes an excellent Spring-house, in which milk, fresh meats, &c. are kept perfectly cool in the warmest weather. This house contains 7 rooms also, with a Porch and a brick Kitchen of 8 rooms attached. Both of the houses are convenient and pleasant Family Residences. The situation is very desirable, the town bearing a high character for healthfulness and for the morality of its citizens.—There are in the town two good Schools for Males and Females.

This property would suit admirably for a Tavern Stand, being well arranged for such a business. The lot is attached to the premises now occupied by the owner, and is also well suited to sell; the Stable being large enough to stand 30 horses, with sheds all around it, and a rat-proof corn crib. The lot contains about 3 Acres, divided into 3 Lots, with never-failing water in each.

I have also for sale, either with the above named property, or separately, as desired, About 50 Acres of No. 1 Land.

In a high state of cultivation, located on the Harrodsburg turnpike, and adjoining the town of Perryville.

Persons desiring to purchase or exchange Land for valuable Town Property, are invited to call and examine the same.

S. T. ROBERTS.

Perryville, Dec 21, '55 1m

Have You Ever Read the Bible Entirely Through?—A plan for Reading the Bible through Every Year.—During January, read Genesis and Exodus; February, read 1st Samuel; April, to 18th of 2d Kings; May, to 5th of Nehemiah; June, to 100th Psalm; July, to 50th of Isaiah; August, to 20th of Ezekiel; September, to the end of the Old Testament; October, to the end of Luke, November, to the end of 1st Corinthians; December, to the end of New Testament. About sixty-five to seventy-five pages per month, or about two pages for every week day, and four pages for every Sunday.

The author of the above simple plan, has rigidly adhered to it as a daily devotional exercise for twenty-four years, and still feeling that this is the "Bread of Life," he is afraid, now, to discontinue it. Reader! paste this on the inner cover of your Bible, and try it.

J. C. MCKAY.

Jan 4, '56 1f

A Teacher Wanted!

A GOOD and experienced Teacher can get a good School by applying to the undersigned, at Millersville, Ky. Good recommendations are required.

N. WOLFIN, Trustees

Millersville, Jan 4, '56 3f

COMMODITY ART ASSOCIATION.

Second Year.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual Collection of the Association of Literature and Art, have been made on the most extensive scale.

Among the works already engaged, is the famous "GENOA CRUCIFIX," which originated with the Association.

In forming the new Collection, the diffusion of works of AMERICAN ART, and the encouragement of American artists, have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American Artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions.

Among them are three Marble statues executed by the greatest living Sculptor—Hiram Powers: George Washington—The Father of his country; Benjamin Franklin—The Philosopher; Daniel Webster—The Statesman.

A special agent has visited Europe, and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of Art, both in Bronzes and Marble; Statuary and Choice Paintings.

The whole forms a large and valuable collection of Paintings and Statuary, to be distributed among

The Kentucky Tribune.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON—Editors.
DANVILLE, KY.

Friday, January 18, 1856.

IF we are indebted to Hon. A. G. TALBOT, for late Washington papers.

IF Mr. G. F. LEE, our Representative in the Legislature, will accept our thanks for late papers.

CENTRAL BANK—A semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. upon the capital stock of this institution was declared by the Directors on the 1st inst.

IF The medical office of Dr. J. M. MEYER, in this county, was partially destroyed by fire a few mornings since.

PROPOSITION FOR A NEW BANK—We see by the proceedings of the Legislature on Monday last, that on that day Mr. BURTON asked and obtained leave to bring a bill into the Senate incorporating the 'Merchants' Deposit Bank of Danville.'

IF The State Convention of the American party of Kentucky is to meet at Frankfort, on Wednesday next. We hope to be enabled to meet there a good delegation of 'Sam's' from every county in the State.

IF The latest news from California, Nicaragua, Oregon, &c., will be found in another part of our paper.

FOREIGN NEWS—THE PEACE PROSPECTS.—The advices from Europe by the last steamer in, will be found in another column.

The peace remains almost as before reported. Russia declines to indemnify the Allies for losses sustained by the war, and that, it is supposed, will be one of the main points insisted on by England. The present prospects indicate that another campaign will be required to settle the matter.

CENTRAL HOUSE STABLES.—Mr. G. G. CARPENTER, well and favorably known as the late proprietor of the Battlement House Stables, has taken the large Stables connected with the Central House, where his old patrons and the public will find him prepared to supply them with horses, buggies, hacks, &c., as well as to attend to all the other departments of the livery business. See advertisement.

A GOOD OFFICER.—Mr. G. W. DOWNEY, our present efficient Sheriff, made a prompt return of the revenue of the county to the Auditor, even before it was due, and has for some time had the acknowledgment of the same from the proper officer. Mr. D. is a faithful public servant, and the promptness with which he has always performed the duties of his position, is well worthy of commendation and remark.

Old Winter continues to favor us with his presence, accompanied by an unusual supply of snow and ice. The extreme cold weather now in our last issue, has, however, given way to a fine sleighing season, and our streets are daily enlivened by the sound of the 'merry, merry bells.' We judge that the memory of even that distinguished and oft-quoted individual, 'the oldest inhabitant,' could not call up from the past a 'cold spell' of much longer continuance, than the one which we have now for nearly a month enjoyed.

IF The Frankfort papers speak in high terms of the interesting exhibition of a number of pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, at the Capitol, a few evenings since. The progress made by the pupils in the various departments of learning, reflected deserved honor upon the worthy principal and his assistants, by whose exertions the benefits of the Institution have been conferred upon those, who otherwise might have been left in hopeless ignorance—especially those idiotic nutes, whose condition, under their patient care, has been so greatly improved.

We notice that a bill for the benefit of the Institution, appropriating the necessary means to complete the new building, has been introduced into the Legislature. We presume there is no doubt of its passage.

CONGRESS.—The Congressional proceedings of Tuesday embrace the latest news we have from the Capitol. On that day another attempt was made to adopt the plurality rule, by a resolution proposing that should the next three ballots not secure an election, the roll should again be called, and the candidate who received the highest number of votes, provided he had a majority of a quorum, should be declared Speaker of the House. The resolution was laid on the table, by a majority of four. The House then resumed voting, and adjourned after the 110th ballot, which resulted as follows: Banks 93; Richardson 66; Fuller 33; Pennington 9 scattering 8—necessary is a choice, 105.

AN ABOLITIONIST LYNCHED.—We learn from the Lexington papers that Joseph Brady, principal of one of the public schools in that city, was introduced to Judge Lynch on Friday night last, on which occasion his hair was shaved off, a coat of tar and varnish administered to his head and face, after which he was 'sent on his way rejoicing.' Brady, it appears, in return for the kindness and confidence of the people of Lexington, which they had exhibited by giving him a responsible and honorable position with a high salary, in his mind, was guilty of writing a letter full of abolitionism, to a paper in Oxford, Ohio, which letter on being republished in the Lexington Statesman, aroused the indignation of the people, and resulted in the summary punishment of the writer, as above stated.

CONVENTION OF OLD SOLDIERS.—A convention of the soldiers of 1812 met in Washington on the 8th inst. Over 200 delegates are reported to have been present, representing Virginia, Kentucky, Mississippi, New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Wisconsin and Vermont. After their organization, they waited upon the President at the White House, to whom they were introduced by their President, Hon. Joel R. Sutherland, and by whom they were received in a cordial, fervent and patriotic speech.

The Convention, after transacting the business for which it was convened, adjourned on the 9th inst., to meet again in Washington City on the 8th of next January.

PROSCRIPTION LOW DOWNS.—The Pierce Administration will long be held in remembrance, but it will most certainly not be remembered for anything either great or good it has done for the country, but for its notorious inability, its outrageous extravagance, and its 'wholesale and retail' proscription for opinion's sake. Not a man who holds office under the present administration dares to exhibit independence in politics, or intimate that he is American in sentiment, and prefers Americans to foreign Catholics or infidels for his rulers, but, presto change! off goes his head, and in his steps a Hindu or Patrick to fill his shoes. It is not acknowledged, we presume, that party proscription has never, in any age of this government, been carried so far as it has by the Pierce administration, has never gotten so low down, has never been exercised in regard to such petty trifling matters.

We have an instance how before us, in the case of the collector of customs at the port of Memphis. Mr. E. Dashiell, a Democrat, has just been removed from that office, because he employed at his Deputy, Mr. Lonsdale, a member of the American party. No charge of incompetency was urged against Mr. D., no charge of opposition to the Administration; nothing whatever objectionable in his own political views, but simply for the reason that one of his employees was opposed to giving foreigners the reins of government in his native land, was he notified of his discharge from office, and a successor appointed, who will probably be a more willing tool to obey the behests of his most thoroughly foreign employers.

TROUBLE WITH ENGLAND.—Rumors that the difficulties existing between this country and Great Britain, are assuming a very serious and threatening aspect, are becoming pretty current. We do not know how much reliance is to be placed in the telegraphic reports of the Washington letter-writers, but it is presumable that there is at least some ground for the statements they make in regard to so important a matter.—The following dispatch is dated New York, Jan. 12:

A Herald Washington correspondent telegraphs from Washington that a strong impression prevails in political circles that our relations with Great Britain are threatening, and serious apprehensions are expressed by many Senators—some of them in the confidence of the Administration—of an early rupture between the two Governments.

Another correspondent telegraphs that highly important despatches have been received at the State Department, from England, with reference to an understanding respecting Central American affairs.

Another dispatch of the same date, quotes from an editorial in the Commercial Advertiser, in which it is stated that the editor is assured, from a source that precludes all doubt of the correctness of the information, that the President has instructed Mr. Buchanan to demand from the British Government the recall of Mr. Cramp-ton, on the ground of his participation in the enlistment of men for the war in the Crimea.

'THE VALLEY FARMER.'—We have received the January number of this valuable agricultural monthly, now published simultaneously at St. Louis and Louisville. It is edited by Messrs. NORMAN J. COLEMAN, EPHRAIM ABBOTT, and H. P. BYRAM, the latter gentleman for some time past agricultural editor of the Louisville Journal. The number before us contains a large amount of useful reading suited to the wants of the farmer, stock raiser and gardener, besides articles on other subjects of interest to nearly every class of readers. We believe the 'Valley Farmer,' is eminently deserving of patronage, and we therefore heartily recommend it to the favorable regard of such of our readers as desire to subscribe for an agricultural periodical of the first class. Terms—One copy one year $1, (invariably in advance); six copies $5; ten copies $8. Letters and subscriptions from Kentucky or contiguous States, to be addressed to H. P. BYRAM, Louisville.

IF The New York Legislature is in about the same fix as the national House of Representatives. At last accounts, all attempts to elect a Speaker had failed, the American candidate receiving the highest vote, though not a majority, and the Democrats being divided into the Hard and Soft factions, each having a candidate of its own. It is reported that the Democracy were endeavoring to unite, and a dispatch from Albany of the 15th announces the withdrawal of the Hard candidate from the contest. Since then we have no further advices.

IF The Richmond (Va.) Whig, commenting on the President's Message, aptly remarks:—'Some two or three columns of the message are devoted to the constitutional theory of our government, and the relations among the States. It prescribes very sound doctrine on Southern rights, though in rather a partisan temper for a Presidential message; but while Mr. Pierce preaches well, he acts badly. To the patronage, which he has lavished upon the South and Free-soilers of the North, are we in an eminent degree indebted for the rapid increase of these detestable factions.'

IF It is but eleven years since the first telegraphic line, of forty miles in length, of Professor Morse, was built, and now there are no less than 38,000 miles of telegraph wire on our continent. In Europe lines of telegraph have been constructed to an extent rivaling those in America. The electric wire extends under the sea of the English Channel, the German Ocean and the Mediterranean. They pass from crag to crag on the Alps, and run through Italy, Switzerland, France, Germany and Russia. They will yet extend through the Atlantic Ocean.

REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONERS.—From the report of the Commissioner of Pensions we derive the following facts: Of Revolutionary soldiers there are now living and drawing pensions only seven hundred and twenty-six. Of this number three hundred and forty-three have died during the past year. At this rate, a couple of years more will send forever the living chain that now binds us, by a few feeble links, to the 'days that tried men's souls.' Of widows and orphans there are on the rolls several thousands drawing pensions.

THREE MEN HUNG.—The Lafayette (Ind.) Journal, of Saturday, contains a long account of the execution on Friday, of Stocking, Rice and Driskill, who were convicted of the murders of John Rose and Cephas Fahrenbaugh. Each one protested his innocence to the last, and evinced great indifference. Rice was 27 years of age, a native of Cuydon, and a tinner by trade. Driskill was 23 years of age, and a native of Harrisburg, Pa. Stocking was 30 years old and from New York.

ANOTHER RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred on the Hudson River Railroad a few days since, by which three persons were killed outright, and twenty-two wounded, of whom three have since died.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—'MY EYES, WHAT A ROW!'—The State Convention of the 'harmonious Democracy,' held at Frankfort last week, appears to have been a rich affair, rivaling in 'noise and confusion,' the Tammany Hall uproar, of which we used to hear so much. To give our readers some idea of the 'battion' (?) by which the proceedings were characterized, we quote from the description of the Convention given by the correspondent of the Louisville Courier, presuming that no one will accuse that paper of representing the State Convention of its new allies as worse than it really was:

A Pandemonium at Night. Babel could not have presented a more stirring confusion of tongues than that which prevailed at the Convention during the night session. Every delegate appeared, primed for a speech, and most of them made an effort to be heard. The position of the Chairman must have been one of great discomfort. He was called upon from every side of the house simultaneously by a hundred voices, and responding to one gentleman as the occupant of the floor, a dozen others asserted their rights. The Democratic tent pegged for several hours, but finally subsided into a deep calm, suggesting the strong determination of all, so matter how they conflicted, to wage war in brotherly union.

The Boyd Men Whipped. Failing to get the Committee on resolutions to recommend Hon. Linn Boyd for the Presidency, a caucus was held at a late hour last night, by his friends to establish the basis of voting upon the number of Democratic votes in the respective counties. This would have given Mr. Boyd great strength, as his friends reside in Jackson's Purchase, the Mountains, where the Democrats are almost unanimous. His resolution was voted, or rather choked down. During its perambulation, there was a terrible outburst of indignant eloquence, and the Democratic members were driven from the hall. The meeting adjourned. Lucien Anderson, of Graves, pulled off his coat, and said that he must be heard—that there must be an expression of the Convention's sentiments. Other gentlemen defended their coats and cravats. Chairs and tables were overturned. Tammany Hall in its palmy days never presented such a Democratic pandemonium.

If such an account is given by the post-correspondent of the Courier, who would, of course, like to approve of everything the Democracy did, said or thought, what a scene that great convulsion of Kentucky Sog Nicks must have presented to the lookers on.

The result of the uproar was, that no preference for the Presidency was expressed. Resolutions 're-affirming the time-honored principles of Democracy,' were adopted as usual. Messrs. B. L. Clarke, B. Magdon, W. Preston, and J. C. Breckinridge were appointed delegates for the State at large to the National Convention, together with the usual number of delegates from each Congressional district. Those from this district are Col. J. B. Garrard, of this county, and Daniel P. White, of Green.

The Convention also appointed a full ticket for Electors of next President and Vice President of the United States. The Electors for the State at large are Elijah Hise, of Logan, and John C. Breckinridge, of Fayette; and for this district, Timoleon Cravens, of Adair, with Thos. P. Hill, of Lincoln, and Andrew Barnett, of Green, for assistants.

THE POSITION OF THE AMERICANS IN CONGRESS.—Hon. A. K. MARSHALL, in a letter to the Lexington Observer, shows very clearly why are responsible for the non-organization of the House. He says:

'We have not the power to elect a Democratic even if we wished to do so. We cannot carry with us that party, the scattering votes which never have as yet voted with us, some of them our old friends, and some of them new. The Democrats know this, and they know that they can organize the House at any time by voting with us, and we cannot by voting with them. They are, and should be held responsible for the unhappy condition of things here, and if it should happen that Banks is elected, that sin, and a most grievous one it will be, will lie at their doors. But we will beat them yet. The struggle may be long and hard; but they will be forced at last to give the house to the Black Republicans, or to save it in the only way in which it can be saved, by the election of a sound National Congress.'

SAM IN NORTH CAROLINA.—Also election held in Wilmington, N. C., for town officers, on the 29th ult., the American party gained a signal triumph. The entire American ticket was elected, notwithstanding the efforts of the Anti-American party, leagued, as it always is, with the foreign and Catholic population.

A SMALL MAN IN A GREAT PLACE.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Star, says:

'One thing is remarked by every stranger here, and that is, how completely the very existence of Franklin Pierce is ignored. He is never seen, or even talked about.'

IF An edition of the Bible, recently published at Nashville, is said by the Southern Christian Advocate, to be the first that has ever been printed south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers.

IF The commercial editor of the New York Times states that from the best information he can obtain, there is in this country two hundred and forty-one millions of dollars in gold in circulation.

IF A very old widow lady in Louisville, named Elston, was buried to death on Saturday night last. It is supposed her clothes caught fire while she was winding up a clock which set upon the mantle-piece.

IF The Cincinnati Commercial has a dispatch from Covington, which states that on the night of the 9th inst., in the latter city, a woman and two children were frozen to death, in their house, being without fuel or fire.

PENNSYLVANIA U. S. SENATOR.—On Tuesday last, Ex-Gov. Bigler, Democrat, was elected to the United States Senate, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

IF Many vessels were wrecked, a number of lives lost, and much property destroyed, by the recent storm on the Atlantic coast.

IF The friends of Bacon College in Mercer county have raised the sum of $1,600, as its quota toward the permanent endowment of said institution. This is independent of the efforts of its friends in other parts of the State.

EFFECTS OF THE WAR.—The Manchester Examiner, one of the ablest of the English provincial papers, says that the increase of pauperism in Manchester has been nearly fifty per cent. in 1855 above the number in 1854. The fact is mentioned to illustrate the influence of the war upon the industrial interests of Great Britain.

IF The fines collected during 1855, in the Cincinnati Police Court, for city and state offenses, was $14,749.25. City $10,341.25; county $4,399.

IF The population of Washington City is estimated at 58,201. The number of houses in the city is 8,926.

DEFINING THEIR POSITIONS. The proceedings in the National House of Representatives on Saturday last, were of a highly interesting character, owing to the fact that, agreeably to a resolution offered by Mr. ZOLLICOFFER, the various candidates for Speaker, on that day defined their positions upon the leading questions by which the country is now agitated, and out of which differences of opinion have grown which threaten the peace and integrity of the Union.

We invite particular attention to the remarks of each candidate, which we give below, as reported by telegraph. Our readers will agree with us, we think, that the 'rank Abolitionist, Fuller,' for whom the National Americans are casting their votes, is the very soundest one of the whole list of candidates, and by far the most deserving of the support of true patriotic Union men. All honor to the gallant band of Americans who adhere to him!

Mr. RICHARDSON replied to the series of written interrogatories proposed by Mr. Zolllicoffer, and commended the marked attention of the members and the audience through the galleries. He said that in acting for the Kansas and Nebraska bill he intended the people of the Territories to decide the question themselves, and he would admit them as States with or without slavery. He said that slavery would not go there, but he never urged that as a reason why he voted for the bill. As to the constitutionality of the bill, he voted for it because it was applicable to the Territories in a spirit of compromise, but it would be unjust to incorporate it in a Territorial bill. In his judgment the constitution does not carry slavery into the Territories, but it protects both sections of the Union alike.

There was much squabbling as to the order of proceeding, and it was finally decided that the candidates should answer Mr. Zolllicoffer's queries, one speaking at a time, and he believed that the constitution carries slavery into the Territories. He recognized the right of the protection of property at the North and South alike, but not property in slaves. He believed the constitution an instrument of freedom, and Congress wrong in repealing the Missouri compromise. Applause from the Republicans and confusion, with cries for Fuller.

Mr. FULLER said he was ready at any time to retire from the field of protracted contest. He did not regard the Kansas bill as a compromise of free or slave States, and had never advocated the constitutionality of the Missouri compromise. Slavery was an evil, and he believed that the constitution carries slavery into the Territories. He recognized the right of the protection of property at the North and South alike, but not property in slaves. He believed the constitution an instrument of freedom, and Congress wrong in repealing the Missouri compromise.

Mr. PENNINGTON was then called for, loudly. He said he had no idea so obscure and unpromising a candidate as himself would be required to define his position. He was outside of the trial, and he believed that the constitution carried slavery into the Territories. He recognized the right of the protection of property at the North and South alike, but not property in slaves. He believed the constitution an instrument of freedom, and Congress wrong in repealing the Missouri compromise.

Mr. BARKSDALE asked Mr. Banks—Are you a member of the Know Nothing party? Are you in favor of slavery in the District of Columbia? Do you wish to promote an equality between the white and black races by legislation? Are you in favor of the entire exclusion of naturalized citizens and Catholics from the Government? You in favor of the modification of the tariff, as you were last session?

Mr. KENNETT said he should like to know whether Mr. Barksdale believed in a future state, and provided each answer in the affirmative, he desired to know whether in a free or slave state. (Excessive laughter.) Mr. BARKSDALE inquired of Mr. KENNETT, and excitedly inquired: 'Do you intend to cast a reflection on me? I hurl it back with scorn and contempt!' Mr. KENNETT. No difficulty in or out of the Hall shall intimidate me. I say to the House that I am a member of the Know Nothing party.

Mr. BARKSDALE. I treat it with scorn and contempt, sir! Order was finally restored. Mr. RICHARDSON replied negatively to Mr. Barksdale's queries during the last.

Mr. BARKS, in answering Mr. Barksdale's interrogatories, preferred doing so in his own way, leaving the gentlemen to draw their own conclusions. He was nominated by Democrats and Americans—the latter being the larger portion of his district—and by them elected. He referred to the record of last year for his views on the tariff. He had adopted a maxim of Junius, 'It is unfortunate for a man to spend any considerable time commenting on his own work.' [Laughter.] As to the equality of the white and black races, he believed in the language of the Declaration of Independence, 'That all men were created free and equal.'

He had adopted the idea that the weaker race will be absorbed in the stronger, that was the universal law of nature; but whether the white or black was superior and would absorb the other he would wait for the full development of the future. [Laughter and cries of 'Good!'] As to the other questions propounded, they were subordinate to that which he had just stated.

Mr. RICHARDSON answered various questions on the subject of slavery propounded by Mr. Zolllicoffer, which related to the Missouri compromise, and the rights of the Territories. Each party appeared entirely satisfied with the responses of its candidates.

The House then proceeded to take another vote for Speaker, which resulted as follows: Mr. Richardson 99, Fuller 34, Pennington 7—Williams, Henry, Barnett, and Porter each one. Necessary to a choice 104.

MORTALITY IN LARGE CITIES.—The mortality statistics of four large cities for the last year present the following results:

	Total No. deaths.
New York	23,107
Philadelphia	19,686
Baltimore	5,475
Boston	4,073

IF A negro man, the property of Capt. Ben. Warfield, of Fayette, was frozen to death in the vicinity of Lexington, on Tuesday night week.

THE SIMONOLDS.—Great indignation is manifested by the people of Florida on account of the recent murders committed by the Indians, and a firm determination to have the negroes, either removed or exterminated. A public meeting was held at Tampa on Sunday, the 23d ult., and the following resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend that the people of this State, submit to no treaty or compromise with these Indians, until the last one is ejected from our territory.

Resolved, That we recommend to the citizens of this county, to organize two or more companies of volunteers, and tender them to the proper authorities, to be used for the protection of the frontier and the prosecution of the war.

THE JOURNAL'S CIRCULAR.—The January number of this popular and interesting monthly reached our table several weeks ago, but we have been compelled to defer our notice of its contents, to the present time. It contains a fine portrait of the venerable JOSEPH W. SWANN, one of the oldest preachers in the Methodist connection, and well known to the readers of the Circle as an Old Man. Then, there is a landscape view of Bethlehem, and an engraving of the Publishing House at Nashville. The reading matter of the Circle is always of a high character, varied and instructive. Dr. HENRY, the editor, is making for it an enviable reputation, and we trust the large patronage it has already been favored with, may continue to increase. It is certainly an excellent publication, and can be read with both pleasure and profit. The new volume commenced with the January number, though it is not yet too late to forward subscriptions, as back numbers will be sent to those who desire them. Terms, $2 per annum, in advance—Stevenson & Owen, publishers, for the M. E. Church, South, Nashville, Tenn.

WOODWORTH'S YOUTH'S CABINET.—The January number of this beautiful and interesting young people's Magazine, has been received. It is edited by FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH, i. e. 'Uncle Frank,' assisted by 'Francis Forester,' 'Aunt Sue,' and numerous contributors. The 'Cabinet' has been enlarged, so as to embrace 36 large octavo pages. This number commences the eleventh volume, and is entirely of a new series, which, we think, will be more acceptable, if possible, than the preceding. Besides containing an elegant steel engraving of the editor, it is otherwise profusely illustrated and embellished, and is supplied with an unusually rich table of contents. Now is the time to subscribe, so as to commence with the new series. Terms—Invariably in advance. One copy one year, $1; four copies, $3.50; five copies, $4; eight copies, $6; fifteen copies, $10; for a club of five or more, an extra copy will be sent to the person getting up the club. Address D. A. WOODWORTH, publisher, 118 Nassau street, New York.

IF Gen. Sam. Houston delivered a lecture at Covington, Wednesday night, the 9th, upon Texas and her struggles for freedom. At the close, a collection of $253 was taken up for the poor.

IF We rather like the inscription at the head of the Rockland (N. Y.) Gazette. It runs thus: 'An Independent paper, devoted to the benefit of its patrons and the pecuniary profit of its publishers.'

COMMERCIAL.

Hogs Killed Around the Falls.

A hog killing around the falls is about drawing to a close, as a few more day's work will wind up the operations of the season. As regards rates or prices we have nothing to report beyond the fact that the market is exceedingly dull at $2.25 for hogs and $1.75 for mess pork, which figures are above the views of buyers. Holders, however, are pretty stiff, and being able to hold on, manifestly no disposition to retrench in their views.

Subjoined is the result of the hog slaughter around the falls up to last evening:

	Hogs Killed.	In Pens.
Hull, Hunt & Co.	81,704	700
Hamilton, Ricketts & Co.	43,919	3,800
A. S. White & Co.	37,825	closed.
Ashtons, Thomas & Co.	50,338	closed.
Owley & Co.	32,445	closed.
Wm. Jarvis & Co.	25,557	148
Huffman, Hamilton & Co.	18,450	closed.
New Albany (estimated);	27,550

Total 313,973 4,500
The total number of hogs received around the falls this season, to date, is 329,470, against 293,788, the entire packing last season. Hull, Hunt & Co., killed 1,800 hogs yesterday, and will probably have one or two more days' killing. What the packing on this side of the river, with a few hogs to be killed by Jarvis & Co., will be closed for the season. The packers at Jeffersonville have some 7,000 hogs yet to kill before they close.

Louisville Courier, 14th.

LOUISVILLE, JAN. 15.
The market at a complete stand, owing to the closure of the river and the suspension of navigation.

WHEAT—Nothing doing. Mess Pork held at $15. Prime Lard is quoted at about 10c. A sale of green hams from the block was made at 7c.

GROCERIES.—Rice Coffee 12@13 1/2. Sugar in hogs 8 to 8 1/2. Candles in quality: in bbls 57 1/2. Plantation Molasses 40@42. Rice 6c. Mould Candles 12@13 1/2. W. R. Cheese 10c@10 1/2.

CATTLE.—Dull. Prices 3 1/2@3 3/4 for good; 3@3 1/2 for good, and 2 1/2@3 for common.

NEW YORK, JAN. 15.
Flour—Improving; sales 6,500 bbls at $9.06 for straight State; $8.50 for Ohio, and $8.62 for Southern. Wheat—Declined; sales 9,500 bushels at $1.80 for Western red, and $1.85 for Southern red. Corn—Improving. Pork—Sales of mess at $16.75.

CINCINNATI, JAN. 15, M.
Flour—Sales 120 bbls at $6.60. Hogs—Firm at $5.75. Provisions—Green hams 7c. Sugar—Sales of 40 bbls fair and good fair at 7 1/2@8. Coffee—Sales of 50 bags Rio at 12 1/2c. Molasses—40c, 65 bbls sold.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CLIPPING WITH THE MAGAZINES.—We are prepared to club our paper with the Magazines for 1856, at the following rates:

One copy of the Tribune and one copy of Graham's Magazine, one year, for $4.
One copy of the Tribune and one copy of Godey's Lady's Book, one year, for $4.
One copy of the Tribune and one copy of Peterson's Magazine, one year, for $3.25.
One copy of the Tribune and one copy of Arthur's Home Magazine, one year, for $3.25.
IF Now is the time for those who wish to subscribe, to do so.
IF Specimen copies of any of the Magazines can be seen at our office.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

We commence sending out our accounts with this number of our paper, and hope those who receive them, will make it convenient to call at the office and settle, or remit to us by mail immediately. We need the money, and are tired of waiting for it.

These of our friends who have promised to send their indebtedness by sending us 'Wagon' will please do so now, or we shall call upon them for the cash on our accounts.

MARRIAGES.

MARRIED.—Yesterday evening, Jan. 17, by Rev. Willie Peck, Mr. BENJAMIN G. RICE, of Grant county, to Miss ANN E. STROD, daughter of Mr. HENRY H. STROD, of this vicinity.

MONEY! MONEY!!

I WOULD respectfully request all who are indebted to me on last year's business, to come forward and settle their accounts immediately, as I need the money to meet my engagements. All concerned will please attend to this notice.

I. R. ERREL.
Jan 17, '56 2t

CARPENTER'S
LIVERY & SALE STABLES.
Adjoining the Central House,
DANVILLE, KY.
THE subscriber desires to inform his friends and the public that he has taken the large and well arranged Stables connected with the Central House, where he will always keep a good supply of No. 1 Hacks, Buggies and Horses, for the accommodation of those who desire them. Prompt attention will be given to the buying and selling of Horses for traders and others who may need his services in that line. Horses Nicked and Broke to Harness or the Saddle, in the best manner.
IF Horses kept by the day, week or month, upon reasonable terms.
He very respectfully solicits a continuance of the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, pledging his exertions to render satisfaction in all cases.
G. G. CARPENTER.
Jan 18, '56 1t

Plantation to Rent out!
A Guardian, I wish to rent out for the year 1856 a Plantation lying on the Hustonville turnpike, 5 miles from Danville. It contains about 100 Acres of Cleared Land, the whole of which has been in grass for several years, and about 300 Acres of Wood-land, all under fence, and part of it pretty well set with grass. The Land is of excellent quality. Apply to me, in Danville.
R. O. BRECKINRIDGE.
Jan 18, 1856 1t

GEO. W. COLLINS,
MANUFACTURER OF
Tin, Sheet Iron and Copper Ware,
AND DEALER IN
Stoves, Grates, Castings,
LAMPS, FLUIDS, PUMPS,
Refrigerators, Water Coolers, Japan Ware, &c. &c.,
Main-st., one door from the corner of Third,
DANVILLE, KY.
TERMS—Accounts due at all times. General settlements 1st of January and 1st of July. Cash sent off for cash, when the amount exceeds $5.
Jan 18, '56 1t

A GENERAL assortment of Odd Irons, and Skillet Lids and And Irons, just received and for sale by
GEO. W. COLLINS.
Jan 18

PUBLIC SALE

Of Carriage Materials, &c. &c.

I N order to pay off and satisfy our creditors, we having dissolved partnership, we will sell to the highest bidder,

On Saturday, January 20th 1856,
At the Carriage Shop recently occupied by us,
4 Buggies, nearly finished;
12 Buggy bodies, under lead cover;
10 or 12 set of Buggy Wheels; a lot of Carriage Iron; a lot of Springs and Axles;
A Lot of Trimming Materials,
Such as Cloths, Laces, Leather, &c.;
A good stock of Carriage Lumber of almost every description, and of the best quality; From 100 to 200 bushels of Stone Coal;
A lot of Poles and Shafts;
One Paint Stall, Trussels and Wheel Set;
Two sets of fine Carriage Blacksmith Tools;
A lot of Wood-Workmen's Tools;
From 2,000 to 3,000 Carriage Spokes;
A small lot of Paints;
3 casks of fine Coach Varnish, &c. &c.

TERMS OF SALE.—The above property will be sold on a credit of 4 months, the purchaser giving bond with approved security. The terms of sale to be complied with before any property is removed.
A. B. GRUBB,
D. F. BASH.
Danville, Jan 18, '56 2t

Mules for Sale.

THE undersigned, living in Hendricks county, Indiana, on the Terre Haute and Richmond Railroad, 20 miles west of Indianapolis, near Clayton, has on hand 47 head of Mules, one year old last spring, which he wishes to sell soon, and would respectfully solicit the attention of the Male Traders of Kentucky.
RICHARD MARTIN.
Hendricks co. Ind., Jan 18,

DANVILLE, KY.

THE DANVILLE, KY.
FEBRUARY 15, 1855.
The undersigned, late proprietor of the "Danville House," has taken a lease for a term of years, that large and commodious public house, so long known in all the South and West, as the "Danville House," and having refitted and furnished the same, is now prepared to accommodate all, whether local or transient, persons who may favor him with a call. His long experience in the business of Hotel keeping, and his earnest desire to please all his guests, will, he hopes, justify him in saying, that at the "Central House" every thing may be found to render his guests comfortable and happy. Thankful to his old friends, and desiring to be assured that the same kindly welcome will greet them, and unceasing efforts made to please them. Intending to furnish the best of the country affords, his customers may always rely upon getting it, and at such prices as all will regard as very reasonable. A liberal share of the public patronage then is desired, and the undersigned hopes it will be extended to him.

W. A. HARNES.
Danville, Mar 9, '55
LIVERY STABLE.
ATTACHED to the "Central House," and under the immediate superintendence of JAMES W. FARRIS, is a Livery and Sale Stable, at which, at all times,
Horses, Buggies and Carriages
May be hired.
MR. FARRIS having a long experience in the business, will Nick, Break and Fit up Horses in the best possible style. They will also be taken at Livery by the Day, Week or Month, and the utmost care taken to render perfect satisfaction. Their charges shall be reasonable and perfectly satisfactory. They respectfully request a fair share of the public patronage.
March 9, '55

BATTERTON HOUSE,
DANVILLE, KY.
THE undersigned having purchased this large and commodious Hotel, is prepared to accommodate Travelers, regular boarders, and the public generally, in the best style. By strict attention to the comfort of patrons, by keeping a good Table, and having competent assistants, and polite, experienced servants, he hopes to sustain the widely spread and enviable reputation of this house.
THE STAGES for Lexington, Louisville, Clark Orchard, Lebanon, &c., arrive at and depart from this house. There is attached to a large STABLE, where Horses, Buggies, Hackes, &c., can be hired at all times.
WM. M. FIELDS.
Sept 22, '54

RIFFE HOUSE,
HUNTSVILLE, KY.
P. B. RIFFE, PROPRIETOR.
THE undersigned having purchased the old and well-known Tavern, known by the name of the "Western House," is prepared to accommodate Travelers and regular boarders in the very best style. Having refitted and furnished the house and being determined to give his personal attention to the business, he hopes to make all who patronize him comfortable and at home. His TABLE shall be always supplied with the best of the country affords, his ROOMS neat and pleasant, and his STABLE furnished with an abundance of provender, and attended by a good driver.
Good Horses and Buggies kept for hire.
P. B. RIFFE.
Huntsville, Oct 5, 1855

REDDING HOUSE,
G. A. ARMSTRONG, PROPRIETOR.
SHELBYVILLE, KY.
HAVING refitted my Oyster Saloon, I am prepared to serve NO. 1 BALTIMORE OYSTERS in any desired quantity. Families supplied by the can or dozen.
J. C. HEWES.
Nov 23

SADDLERY,
LINNEY & WILSON
TAKE this method of expressing their thanks to the public for past favors, and of soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage they have heretofore received. They invite the attention of purchasers to their present stock, embracing
Ladies' and Gentlemen's Saddles
Of every description, together with a general assortment of Carriage, Buggy, Stage and Wagon.
HARNESSES.
Bridles, Collars, Martingales, Whips, Trunks, &c. &c.
As we are constantly manufacturing, we are prepared to make to order on short notice any article which may be called for in our line. We intend to do
NO GRABBING.
About our work or prices, but ask a call from those desiring to purchase. We are willing to let them judge whether we cannot do good work and at as low prices as any of our neighbors.
REPAIRING promptly attended to.
DANVILLE, APRIL 13, 1855
Saddle, Harness and Trunk EMPORIUM.

FUNERAL CALLS.
Having a supply of Fick's Metallic BURIAL CASES, and having secured the use of a good two-horse HEARSE, I am still prepared to attend funeral calls at any hour in town or country. Wooden Coffins made to order as heretofore.
JONA. NICHOLS.
Jan 5, 1855

FURNITURE AND CHAIRS.
G. W. HEWES,
MANUFACTURER OF
FURNITURE & CHAIRS
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,
THIRD STREET, DANVILLE, KY.
Parsons, Wardrobes, Sofas, Drawers, Lounges, Chairs and Bedsteads of every style always on hand. Hair Matts and Sluck Mattresses of various sizes.
UNDERTAKING.
I keep constantly on hand a supply of Metallic Burial Cases, and will attend Funeral Calls at any hour in town or country. Wooden Coffins of any kind desired made to order, as heretofore.
G. W. H.
Aug 24, 1855

HOTELS.

CENTRAL HOUSE.
THE undersigned, late proprietor of the "Danville House," has taken a lease for a term of years, that large and commodious public house, so long known in all the South and West, as the "Danville House," and having refitted and furnished the same, is now prepared to accommodate all, whether local or transient, persons who may favor him with a call. His long experience in the business of Hotel keeping, and his earnest desire to please all his guests, will, he hopes, justify him in saying, that at the "Central House" every thing may be found to render his guests comfortable and happy. Thankful to his old friends, and desiring to be assured that the same kindly welcome will greet them, and unceasing efforts made to please them. Intending to furnish the best of the country affords, his customers may always rely upon getting it, and at such prices as all will regard as very reasonable. A liberal share of the public patronage then is desired, and the undersigned hopes it will be extended to him.

W. A. HARNES.
Danville, Mar 9, '55
LIVERY STABLE.
ATTACHED to the "Central House," and under the immediate superintendence of JAMES W. FARRIS, is a Livery and Sale Stable, at which, at all times,
Horses, Buggies and Carriages
May be hired.
MR. FARRIS having a long experience in the business, will Nick, Break and Fit up Horses in the best possible style. They will also be taken at Livery by the Day, Week or Month, and the utmost care taken to render perfect satisfaction. Their charges shall be reasonable and perfectly satisfactory. They respectfully request a fair share of the public patronage.
March 9, '55

BATTERTON HOUSE,
DANVILLE, KY.
THE undersigned having purchased this large and commodious Hotel, is prepared to accommodate Travelers, regular boarders, and the public generally, in the best style. By strict attention to the comfort of patrons, by keeping a good Table, and having competent assistants, and polite, experienced servants, he hopes to sustain the widely spread and enviable reputation of this house.
THE STAGES for Lexington, Louisville, Clark Orchard, Lebanon, &c., arrive at and depart from this house. There is attached to a large STABLE, where Horses, Buggies, Hackes, &c., can be hired at all times.
WM. M. FIELDS.
Sept 22, '54

RIFFE HOUSE,
HUNTSVILLE, KY.
P. B. RIFFE, PROPRIETOR.
THE undersigned having purchased the old and well-known Tavern, known by the name of the "Western House," is prepared to accommodate Travelers and regular boarders in the very best style. Having refitted and furnished the house and being determined to give his personal attention to the business, he hopes to make all who patronize him comfortable and at home. His TABLE shall be always supplied with the best of the country affords, his ROOMS neat and pleasant, and his STABLE furnished with an abundance of provender, and attended by a good driver.
Good Horses and Buggies kept for hire.
P. B. RIFFE.
Huntsville, Oct 5, 1855

REDDING HOUSE,
G. A. ARMSTRONG, PROPRIETOR.
SHELBYVILLE, KY.
HAVING refitted my Oyster Saloon, I am prepared to serve NO. 1 BALTIMORE OYSTERS in any desired quantity. Families supplied by the can or dozen.
J. C. HEWES.
Nov 23

SADDLERY,
LINNEY & WILSON
TAKE this method of expressing their thanks to the public for past favors, and of soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage they have heretofore received. They invite the attention of purchasers to their present stock, embracing
Ladies' and Gentlemen's Saddles
Of every description, together with a general assortment of Carriage, Buggy, Stage and Wagon.
HARNESSES.
Bridles, Collars, Martingales, Whips, Trunks, &c. &c.
As we are constantly manufacturing, we are prepared to make to order on short notice any article which may be called for in our line. We intend to do
NO GRABBING.
About our work or prices, but ask a call from those desiring to purchase. We are willing to let them judge whether we cannot do good work and at as low prices as any of our neighbors.
REPAIRING promptly attended to.
DANVILLE, APRIL 13, 1855
Saddle, Harness and Trunk EMPORIUM.

FUNERAL CALLS.
Having a supply of Fick's Metallic BURIAL CASES, and having secured the use of a good two-horse HEARSE, I am still prepared to attend funeral calls at any hour in town or country. Wooden Coffins made to order as heretofore.
JONA. NICHOLS.
Jan 5, 1855

FURNITURE AND CHAIRS.
G. W. HEWES,
MANUFACTURER OF
FURNITURE & CHAIRS
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,
THIRD STREET, DANVILLE, KY.
Parsons, Wardrobes, Sofas, Drawers, Lounges, Chairs and Bedsteads of every style always on hand. Hair Matts and Sluck Mattresses of various sizes.
UNDERTAKING.
I keep constantly on hand a supply of Metallic Burial Cases, and will attend Funeral Calls at any hour in town or country. Wooden Coffins of any kind desired made to order, as heretofore.
G. W. H.
Aug 24, 1855

NEW STOCK.

W. I. MOORE,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
DANVILLE, KY.
I WOULD remind my patrons and the public, that I am now receiving my stock of Fall and Winter Goods,
Comprising every variety of
Cassimeres and Vestings,
Gent's Furnishing Goods, &c.
Sailed to the present and approaching seasons. I can say to those who desire to clothe themselves, that I am prepared to furnish the very best materials, made in the latest style, and on terms just and reasonable.
A superior stock of the most fashionable Silk and Beaver HATS just received.
W. I. MOORE.
Sept 7, 1855

NEW GOODS.
JOHN HAYT
HAS just received at his old stand, a new and superior stock of
DRY GOODS,
Groceries, Boots and Shoes, &c. &c., consisting of every variety of Fall and Winter Goods, of the latest and most fashionable styles, which he will sell Low for Cash, or Good Barter, and to punctual dealers on the usual time.
Danville, Sept 21, '55

FALL & WINTER FASHIONS!
A. W. BARKER,
DRAPER AND TAILOR,
RESPECTFULLY informs his old friends and the public that he has opened a shop on Main street, two doors above Caldwell's corner, for the purpose of carrying on the Tailoring business in all its branches. He has just received a well selected stock of superior
CLOTHS,
Cassimeres and Vestings,
Which he is prepared to cut and make up in the best and most fashionable style, and on reasonable terms.
He solicits a call from those desiring anything in the line, promising that he will do all in his power to give satisfaction to all who may patronize him.
Danville, Sept 14, 1855

DRY GOODS, CARPET, AND FURNISHING HOUSE.
W. C. LUCAS
HAS now in store his Fall and Winter stock of Fancy and Staple Dry Goods,
Carpets, Quensware,
And General Furnishing Goods. All of which have been selected with the most careful attention to the wants of customers in Danville and the surrounding country. His stock has been purchased principally in Cash, which enables him to sell as low as any other house in Kentucky. He is determined that no pains shall be spared in trying to please the tastes and suit the wants of his customers. His stock of
DRESS GOODS
Combines all the most modern styles of Rich Fancy and Plain Silks;
Black, wool, Plain and Printed DeLaines; Bombazines, Lustrous, and Gallic Plaid; English, Scotch and American Prints; Ginghams, &c. His stock of Embroideries, Laces, &c., is good, and as cheap as ever.
READY-MADE CLOTHING.
He keeps constantly on hand a large lot of Ready-Made Clothing, of every description, at VERY LOW PRICES, together with a choice selection of English French and German Cloths and Cassimeres;
Silk, Velvet, Plush and other Vestings; And having employed an experienced CUTTER and TAILOR, he is prepared to make to order at short notice, his goods in any style the purchaser may require, and warrant to give satisfaction.
He rents his Store, South-east corner of Main and Third streets.
W. C. LUCAS.
Danville, Oct 19, 1855

R. CARSON,
STANFORD, KY.
DEALER IN DRUGS, CHEMICALS,
Paints, Oils, and Dye-Stuffs,
Groceries, Confectioneries, &c.
THE undersigned having purchased the old and well known Stanford Drug Store, is prepared to fill all orders in his line. He will at all times keep a large, superior and well-assorted stock of the above named articles, together with Stationery, and Fancy Articles,
Patent Medicines,
Soaps, Perfumery, &c. &c.
He invites a call from all who may need anything in his line of business, as he is confident they will be pleased with his prices, as well as with the quality of the articles he offers for sale.
Physicians' orders carefully filled at all hours.
R. CARSON.
Stanford, Oct 5, 1855

LATEST STYLES,
Clothing and Furnishing Goods!
FOR THE FALL & WINTER!
Cheap! Superior! Well-Made!
LEVENSON & BRO.
ARE now receiving the largest and most superior stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods ever brought to Danville, embracing Overcoats of every Description,
Dress, Frock, Sack, and Coat of all kinds—from the finest to the cheapest. Black and Fancy, Cloth, Cassimere and James PANTS, Velvet, Flank, Satin, Silk, and Woolen VESTS. Together with Furnishing Goods, including everything necessary to dress a gentleman from top to toe in the best style.
INDIA-RUBBER GOODS, HATS, CAPS, CANES, UNBELLAS, &c. &c.
Our new stock will challenge comparison with any in the country, for variety, quality and price. We are determined not to be undersold in this market, and our motto is—SMALL PROFITS—QUICK SALES.
Persons desiring to clothe themselves in the most fashionable manner, with fine, well-made garments, at the Very Lowest Prices at which such articles can be sold, are invited to give us a call.
L. LEVENSON & BRO.

AT LEVENSON & BRO.'S
Merchant Tailoring Establishment.
Between McGorty's Drug Store and Hewes' Confectionery.
WILL be found, besides a large stock of Clothing, a splendid assortment of Piece Goods, of the most fashionable and admired patterns for Coats, Pants, and Vests, which they are prepared to cut and make up, in the best manner, at greatly reduced prices—Drop in and examine for yourselves.
Danville, Sept 14, 1855

NEW STOCK.

H. HAMILTON
IS now receiving his Fall Stock of GLASS AND QUENSWARE, Varieties and Notions of all kinds.
Fresh Raisins, Stems, assorted kinds; Willow and Wooden Ware;
Hardware and Cutlery:
Porte Monies; Accordions, Harps; Combs, gum, horn and fine, various patterns; Cotton Yarns, Carpet and Tatting; Bells, Bolts, Blacking and Brushes; Soda, Cove Oysters, assorted Pickles; Fresh and Preserved Fruits; Cakes and Sweet Oils;
Soaps and Perfumery, all kinds;
10,000 Imported Cigars; 20,000 Half Spanish, Gutta Percha Boots and Shoe Polish;
No. 1 Mackerel in kits and barrels.
Together with many other articles too numerous to mention—all for sale on reasonable terms.
Oct 5, 1855
H. HAMILTON.

DANVILLE STEAM MILL.
I AM now prepared to GRIND WHEAT at the Danville Steam Mill, and hope to be able to give satisfaction to those sending Wheat to be ground. As I cannot do justice to very small lots, I would prefer exchanging Flour for all parcels under ten bushels.
I expect to keep on hand a constant supply of Superior and Common
FLOUR.
Also, Unbolted Flour, Corn Meal, Choppen, Rye, Bran, &c.
CORN GRINDING as usual, on Tuesdays and Fridays.
Cash paid for Wheat.
D. CROZIER, AGT.
Sept 28, 1855

NEWS EXTRA!
W. M. STOUT,
DANVILLE, KY.,
Wholesale & Retail Druggist,
AND GENERAL DEALER IN BOOKS, STATIONERY,
Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals,
Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Dye-Stuffs, Brushes, Glass, Perfumery,
FANCY ARTICLES, &c.
HAVING received and receiving daily, new additions to my stock, I can assure my friends and customers that I can compete with any similar house, in quality, prices, and variety of goods. Still at the same old stand, Sign of the Big Book and Mortar.
W. M. STOUT.
Oct 26, '55

IMPORTANT!
To the Agricultural Interests!
I WISH to inform my friends and the public that I still continue to manufacture my well known and thoroughly tried
PLOWS
Of various descriptions, which I will sell on reasonable terms for Cash, and warrant to give general satisfaction. I also make and have now on hand, superior
TWO-HORSE WAGONS,
One-Horse Carts, &c.
All other kinds of BLACKSMITHING and WOOD WORK done on the shortest notice on fair terms. My Shop is at the old stand of John Erwin, dec'd., on Fourth street, Danville, Ky.
J. B. McNEILL.
Sept 14, 1855

A NEW & LARGE STOCK
—OF—
Drugs, Medicines, Books, Stationery, Fancy Articles, &c.
A. S. MCGORTY
HAS just received an unusually heavy stock of articles in his line of business, embracing a complete assortment of
FRESH AND GENUINE DRUGS & MEDICINES,
Which he can recommend to Physicians and others as being of superior quality and pure. He has also the largest stock of BOOKS.
For Schools, Colleges, &c., ever brought to the place. Also, Miscellaneous Books, Stationery, Perfumery, Cutlery, and Fancy Articles in almost endless variety.
He is prepared as heretofore to sell at WHOLESALE to Druggists, Physicians, Teachers, &c., on the most favorable terms.
A. S. MCGORTY.
Danville, Oct 26, 1855

PUMPS.
JUST received, direct from the manufacturer in New York, a large supply of various descriptions of ANTI-FREEZING PUMPS of every superior quality—suitable for any well or cistern from 5 to 50 feet deep. I am selling them Low for Cash. Call and see.
GEO. W. COLLINS.
Aug 18, '55

Welsh & Nichols
HAVE just received a new lot of Sugar and Coffee of the very best quality.
Dec 7, 1855
CARPETS!—CARPETS!
WELSH & NICHOLS have a very large stock of Carpets, which they are selling cheap.
Oct 12
JUST received at WELSH & NICHOLS, a large and superior lot of PAINTS.
Oct 12
Cloaks and Talmas.
WELSH & NICHOLS have just received a splendid lot of Cloaks and Talmas. Also, a good stock of Cloaking Cloth.
Oct 12
Welsh & Nichols
KEEP constantly on hand a good assortment of Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, Hardware, Quensware, Glassware, Window Glass—in fact, almost anything called for.
Oct 12
Groceries.
SUGAR, Coffee, Tea, Tobacco, &c., of superior quality, can be found at
Oct 12
WELSH & NICHOLS.

Just Received from New York,
J. & NICHOLS a large lot of Cassimeres, Casimere, Gentlemen's Shaws, Flannels, Hosiery and Drills. Also a large stock of Quensware and Stoneware.
Nov 8, '55.

NEW GOODS.

J. L. & W. H. Waggener
ARE now receiving and opening their choice and desirable stock of
NEW STYLE GOOD
Fresh from the Eastern Cities.
And embracing the most fashionable patterns Dress Goods, Laces, Embroideries, Goods for Gentlemen's wear, Boots, Shoes, &c.
We invite our old customers and purchasers of Dry Goods generally to call and examine our splendid new stock. We are determined that our reputation for selling superior Goods at LOW RATES, shall be sustained.
Aug 31, '55
J. L. & W. H. W.

FALL IMPORTATION!
THE subscribers are now receiving and opening their FALL STOCK OF GOODS,
Embracing a general assortment of British,
French,
India, and Domestic
DRY GOODS,
Hats and Caps; Bonnets; Boots, Shoes; Wall Paper, &c. &c.
All of which will be sold at short profits, As Low as the Lowest!
We solicit an early call from our customers and the public generally. Our Goods will be shown with pleasure, whether we sell or not. Come and examine for yourselves, if you want good Goods at low prices.
S. & E. S. MESSICK.
Aug 31, '55

New Stock.
I HAVE just received my new Spring Stock, embracing the largest variety of articles in my line ever brought to the place. I would call the particular attention of purchasers to my fine stock of the most approved
COOKING STOVES,
Of various patterns and sizes. Also, Hollow Ware, Old Lids, Sad Irons, Brass Kettles,
Self-Heating Irons,
A large and handsome assortment of
JAPAN WARE,
Consisting of Toilet Sets, Water Coolers, (new after us), Fancy Boxes, Water Filters, (a new article), Spittoons, Foot Tubs, &c. An assortment of PUMPS,
Of the best quality, with pipe and all the necessary fixtures to put them in first-rate working order; also, a
Garden or Fire Engine.
Of various patterns;
BURNING FLUID, &c.
Together with an unusually large stock of TEFF-WARE,
Of my own manufacture, embracing everything in that line—all of which will be sold Low for cash, or on short notice to prompt-paying customers.
G. W. COLLINS.
April 6, 1855

NEW STYLES!
Hats and Caps, Boots & Shoes
W. FIGG
HAS now on hand a fine stock of hats and caps, with Mr. Figg is still engaged in manufacturing superior Boots & Shoes of every kind, in the most superior manner. He has now on hand a fine stock of the best French Calf-Skins and other findings, which he is as heretofore prepared to make up in the most fashionable style. Lasting and Cloth Gaiters, and all other Summer shoes promptly made to order on short notice.
April 13, '55

FALL, 1855.
NEW GOODS.
I WOULD respectfully call the attention of my old customers and purchasers generally, to my new and well assorted stock of Fall and Winter Dry Goods.
Embracing the handsomest assortment of the latest styles of Silks, DeLaines, Merinos, and other
FASHIONABLE DRESS GOODS,
I have ever imported. Also, a large stock of STAPLE GOODS, Browns and Bleached Cottons, Irish and Table Linens, Flannels, Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings—a fine assortment also of LACE GOODS, Embroideries, Gloves, Hosiery, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c. &c.
I have also an unusually large and superior stock of CARPETING.
Oil Cloth and Matting, Curtain Goods, Table Covers, &c., of beautiful patterns.
As I intend selling AT VERY LOW PRICES, purchasers will find it to their interest to call on me before buying elsewhere.
L. DIMMITT.
Sept 7, 1855

FRESH GOODS!—CHEAP!
WORTH OF BOOTS & SHOES!
W. B. MORROW & CO.,
ON return from the Eastern Cities, invite an examination of our NEW ARRIVAL
of
Fall and Winter Goods,
Selected with great care, purchased on the very best terms, and to be sold at a very small advance on cost.
An early examination is requested, as it will afford us pleasure to show our Goods, and particularly so after the arrival of a large and fresh stock. Our new importation comprises the usual assortment in great variety, consisting in part of Striped, Plaid, Figured and Plain Silks; Merinos, Embroideries, Carpets, DeLaines, Velvet Ribbons, Tickings, Ginghams, Mantillas, Irish Linens, Cottons, Cassimeres, Vestings, Turkish Towels, 10-4 Sheetings, Together with a great variety of other Goods, which will be sold at the lowest possible prices.
VERY LOWEST PRICES!
Ladies, call and judge for yourselves.
Sept 7, '55

TWO HORSE WAGON.
No. 1 Two-horse Wagon, for Farm use, for sale by July 30
J. B. AKIN.

CALL AND SEE.

Cheaper than the Cheap!
FRESH ARRIVAL OF FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING!
HENRY JACOBS,
At the Danville and Boyle County Clothing Store, between McGorty's and Stout's Drug Stores, Danville, Ky.
HAS just received and is now opening decidedly the LARGEST and MOST COMPLETE assortment of superior and fashionable
READY-MADE CLOTHING,
For Fall and Winter wear, ever opened for inspection in this place, which will be sold FIFTY PER CENT. CHEAPER than the same articles have been before bought in this market.
GENTLEMEN'S APPAREL IN TOTO.
Consisting of Fine Dress, Frock, Sack, Box and Business COATS, together with OVER-COATS, the largest stock in Danville. Doekins, Cloth, Cassimere and James PANTS. Fine Embroidered, Satin, Silk, Velvet, Flank, Cloth and Cassimere VESTS. Shirts, Collars, Bosoms, Suspenders, Gloves, Socks, Drawers, Scarfs, Cravats, and Ties of all qualities. My lot of
HATS AND CAPS
Was never equalled in Danville, embracing any and every description which may be called for. Such as Silk, Plush, Fur, Wool, Glazed and Shanghai Hats; Cloth, Plush and Glazed Caps.
Of all kinds. I have also opened an immense stock of SERVANTS' CLOTHING of the best quality. INDIA-RUBBER GOODS, Coats, Caps, Leggings, Hats, Coats and Umbrellas. I have also on hand a fine and magnificent stock of JEWELRY and CUTLERY.
I can assure all who patronize me, that I will sell lower by 50 per cent. than any other store in Danville, for Cash. I invite every one to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere, as I have arranged my prices to suit all customers, and warrant all I sell as well made and no old goods.
Danville, Oct 5, 1855

DANVILLE COACH REPOSITORY,
Corner of Main and Fourth Streets, opposite the Batterton House.
S. E. FARRAND
WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Boyle and the adjoining counties, that his SPRING STOCK is very large and varied, consisting of every description of Carriages, Coaches, Buggies, Rockaways, &c. &c.
His entire stock of Eastern work is from the best Manufacturers, and consists of all the latest styles and patterns, and he will warrant all the work sold by him to be as he represents it. Let all wishing to purchase any kind of a VEHICLE, or who are fond of examining work in his line, give him a call.
If I have also on hand a stock of Second-hand Carriages,
Of every description, repaired and fitted up in the best and most complete order.
Every description of Carriage made to order. Repairing and Repainting of all kinds done at the shortest notice, in the best style, and on the most reasonable terms.
S. E. FARRAND.
Fayetteville, Apr 8, '53

COACH-MAKING
REPAIRING.
GEORGE THRELKELD
RETURN public for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, and would respectfully inform his former patrons and the public generally, that he continues to carry on the Carriage Making Business
In all its branches, and has now, and intends keeping on hand, or will make to order, Coaches, Carriages, Rockaways, Buggies, in all their varieties. He respectfully solicits a call from all who may wish to purchase any kind of a vehicle, and will merely say, that his work shall be well done, and warranted as represented, while his prices shall be as low as those of any other establishment in this section of country.
If he still occupies his old stand, on Second street, opposite Mr. A. S. McGorty's, he is prepared to give to the REPAIRING and Re-fitting of vehicles of every kind.
GEO. THRELKELD.
Danville, June 8, '55

J. C. M'KAY'S
Family Grocery and Flour Store,
Main Street, Danville, Ky.
JUST received, a fresh stock of superior Family Groceries, consisting in part of N. O. Crushed, Pow'd and Clar'd Sugar; Rice and Java Coffee;
Green and Black Teas;
Syrup, S. H. and Plantation Molasses; Mackerel and White Fish;
Star and Tallow Candles;
Rice, Pepper, Spices, &c. &c.,
All of which I am prepared to sell at reasonable prices, in quantities to suit purchasers.
May 18, '55
J. C. M'KAY.

Oldham's Spun Cotton.
OLDHAM'S Spun Cotton, assorted numbers, for sale by
J. C. M'KAY.
May 18
Rifle and Blasting Powder.
SUPERIOR Rifle and Blasting Powder, for sale by the keg or by retail. Also, Shot, Caps, Fishing Tackle, &c., by
J. C. M'KAY.
May 18
Sundries.
WOODEN, Willow and Stone Ware; Cotton, Green and Home Ropes; Coarse Boots and Shoes, etc., for sale low by
J. C. M'KAY.
May 18
A Polite Request.
I WOULD respectfully inform those of my customers who are indebted to me, that I need the money on their accounts, and they will greatly oblige me by paying up immediately. I hope this notice will be attended to.
May 18, '55
J. C. M'KAY.

Merchant Tailoring.
I HAVE permanently engaged the best and most fashionable CUTTER and TAILOR ever employed in Boyle County, and having a very large and superior stock of FRESH GOODS I am prepared to cut and make to order Coats, Pants and Vests of the latest patterns, on the shortest notice, and lower than such work elsewhere in Danville. If Gentlemen patronizing their own Goods can have them cut and made up on the most reasonable terms. Come and judge, every one.
HENRY JACOBS.
Oct 5, 1855

NOTICE.
THOSE indebted to me by note or account are requested to call upon M. J. FURHAM and settle. He is authorized to settle up all my mercantile business. By speedily settling their accounts, as I am compelled to settle up my business as soon as possible.
JOHN H. CALDWELL.
Oct 19, '55

FOR SALE OR RENT.
THE TRACT OF LAND, known as the Frying Pan Bend, on Dick's River, JAMES KINNARD.
Dec 8, '54

HIDES & LEATHER.
I WILL pay for good Beef Hides, delivered at my Tan Yard, in Danville, 4 1/2 cents for Green, or 3 cents for Dry. In CASH, or Leather. Also, Tan in the shere.
S. S. MOORE.
Nov 24, '54

5000 Lbs. Rags Wanted!
FOR which the highest price will be given in cash or Groceries.
Dec 16, '53
H. HAMILTON.

COAL.
I HAVE now about 8,000 bushels of excellent COAL—John G. Nagle's best—which I am prepared to deliver to the citizens of Danville and the surrounding country. TERMS—Cash in all cases—the money to be paid to the wagoner upon the delivery of the Coal.
R. M. ROBINSON.
Gardner co. April 6, '55

WOOL WANTED.
10,000 LBS. Wool wanted, for which we will pay the highest market price in Goods.
J. L. & W. H. WAGGENER.
June 8, '55

For Sale or Rent.
THE TRACT OF LAND, known as the Frying Pan Bend, on Dick's River, JAMES KINNARD.
Dec 8, '54

HIDES & LEATHER.
I WILL pay for good Beef Hides, delivered at my Tan Yard, in Danville, 4 1/2 cents for Green, or 3 cents for Dry. In CASH, or Leather. Also, Tan in the shere.
S. S. MOORE.
Nov 24, '54

5000 Lbs. Rags Wanted!
FOR which the highest price will be given in cash or Groceries.
Dec 16, '53
H. HAMILTON.